ARAKSA THE JOURNEY OF THE TEA TREASURE

The Araksa Tea Garden, located on a scenic, evergreen hill in the Mae Tang District in Chiang Mai, specializes in producing high quality Assam tea, an indigenous tea plant in this area. The site is one of the oldest tea gardens in Thailand. Thanks to its high elevation and the quality of its soil and water, the land here is ideal for tea planting. Undisturbed for many years, the tea plants have not been exposed to chemical pesticides or fertilizers for over a decade. Thus, today, we are producing excellent tealeaves.

Traveling Programs:

Upon arrival at the tea plantation, you will be greeted by our staff, who will explain the different processes and methods used to cultivate young tea plants.

After that, the experienced resident picker will lead you to the tea bushes where she will show you how to pluck tealeaves. You are welcome to join them - A bamboo basket to carry during the tea plucking activity will be provided.

At the roasting station, we will demonstrate the art of making tea by hand from kneading to roasting tealeaves. When the roasting is done, enjoy a cup of tea with delicious Thai snack.
